

PRESS RELEASE

19.02.2019

Regarding reports in the Algerian media about the status of the AFP Algiers bureau chief, the AFP management wishes to state that it has received no notification from the Algerian authorities so is not in a position to make any comment.

AFP's international network covers global news in real-time in six languages offering text, video, photo and infographics. It has strict editorial standards of rigour, independence and impartiality. With more than 5,000 clients and present in 151 countries, the Agency has had a bureau in Algiers since 1962.
